

Media Statement 1 March 2018

Chinchilla boil water alert lifted

After the mandatory three day testing period, Queensland Health advises that water samples from the Chinchilla Water Treatment Plant have returned negative results for bacteria. As a result, the boil water alert has now been lifted for Chinchilla.

Western Downs Regional Council wishes to thank the Chinchilla community for their water conservation efforts while Council worked to resolve the situation.

— Ends —

Media Contact:

Alex Bernard

Communications and Marketing Manager

0436 695 039